

eReconciliation®

Review, compare and manage Serious Adverse Events (SAEs) across Clinical and Safety databases with a GxP validated eReconciliation

Stop using excel files, printed listings and repetitive tasks for SAE Reconciliation. eReconciliation® helps Drug Safety Managers to save time and money, reduce errors, and prevent major compliance breaks.

Ethical's eReconciliation main features:

- Easily Import and Compare SAE Records from any Clinical Database (RAVE, EDC, ARGUS, etc)
- Navigate related Safety Events' Data Across Data Sources in order to link them and never miss any SAE information
- Track, Coordinate and Delegate SAEs Reconciliation Operations improving GxP regulatory compliance
- Be alerted for any Safety Record Change to review, update and version related safety data links
- View, Export and Download Reconciliation outputs, reports, and Audit Trail for Data Management, Audits, and Archiving

Ethical's eReconciliation solution includes full support

- ISO 27001 Cloud System Hosting & Management (backup/monitoring/security/business continuity);
- Software Validation packages, Stage Environment for Test and Training;
- Technical Support through integrate Help Desk

eReconciliation Software Adoption Made Easy

Ethical is not just a technology company; we hold the experience and expertise in clinical trials GxP data management to make a difference in your costs and timelines.

Our deployment approach is simple, rapid and effective:

Customer's needs Evaluation we analyze your data management environment and implement the software plan / URS specifically for you.

Software Configuration we configure and personalize your dedicated environment for approval and acceptance tests in the validation environment.

UAT and Acceptance you make tests and validation of the software checking all features against the URSs.

Production Release & Ongoing Support we release & keep working the eReconciliation solution supporting your staff in every moment .

Ask now for a FREE Demo on www.datareconciliation.com

